Booking terms and conditions

- A non-refundable deposit of £50 per room payable by debit/credit card is required to secure your reservation at the time of booking. This will be deducted from your bill on departure. This charge will still apply in cases where only a card pre-authorisation was taken at the time of booking. Balance payment will be taken at check-out from the card provided at the time of booking unless an alternative card is given
- All major debit/credit card accepted except American Express
- Booking confirmation will be emailed or posted following receipt of deposit or card pre-authorisation
- Cancellations of 3 days or less from arrival date will be charged at the full room rate unless we are able to re-let the room.
- When cancellation is 4 days or more from arrival date we will hold over the deposit for 3 months from cancellation date to use against a future reservation which must be made within 28 days of cancelling
- Cancellation must be made in writing. We will, upon receipt of your instructions, send you written confirmation of your cancellation. These are the only forms of proof accepted by us of any cancellation of booking
- Your stay will be charged in full if you do not show up on your arrival date and/or depart before your original departure date
- Tyr Graig Castle is strictly a non-smoking establishment. A cleaning charge of £50 per room (minimum) will be levied if evidence of smoking is detected
- Check-in time is between 2.00pm and 10.00pm. Early check-in (12pm earliest) is available for an additional charge of £10 per room
- Check-out time is between 8.30am and 10.30am. Late check-out (12pm latest) is available for an additional charge of £10 per room
- A disposal and cleaning charge of £20 per room (minimum) will be levied if extra cleaning is required due to (but not limited to) spillages and excessive refuse left in the room
- Tyr Graig has valuable items of furniture and is also a private home. Damage to any fixtures and furnishings arising from misuse or negligence will be deemed the responsibility of the guest, who will be charged in full for the restoration/replacement of damaged items
- Children must be supervised by parents/guardians at all times especially when wandering near the cliff edge.
- Subject to availability, residents may use the car park free of charge during their period of stay. This is at the owner's risk.
- Residents are advised not to leave any valuable or cherished items unattended in their room as we cannot accept responsibility for any loss or damage
